

Worksheet 1: Analysis or not answers

- 1 Sentence 2 – The increase in girls' achievement shows changing attitudes to education.
This gives a reason for girls' higher achievement.
- 2 Sentence 2 – Most people will be members of a nuclear family at some point, this shows its importance in society.
Shows the consequence of people being in a nuclear family.
- 3 Sentence 1 – Positivists favour quantitative data as it enables statistical analysis.
Identifies a reason for favouring quantitative data.
- 4 Sentence 1 – To ensure research is ethical and does not breach moral principles, researchers must aim to avoid deception and gain informed consent.
Gives an explanation for the need to consider ethics.
- 5 Sentence 2 – The use of restricted code can disadvantage working-class children in education.
Shows the effect of the restricted code.
- 6 Sentence 1 – The Hindu caste system affects culture and identity in India as members are born to a specific category.
Shows an explanation of why the caste system is relevant to identity.
- 7 Sentence 1 – Longitudinal studies can show continuity or change due to studying a group over a long time period.
Explains the effect of a longer study.
- 8 Sentence 2 – For Popper, science does not aim to prove a theory but to disprove it. This is known as falsification.
Gives a full explanation of Popper's view of science.