

Worksheet 4: Stating different examples

- 1 State as many as possible different examples of sources of finance and methods of funding for all types of business entities (Specify according to the type of the business entity such as a sole trader, a partnership or limited companies only). The first two have been completed for you.

- 2 State as many as possible different types of errors which do not affect the trial balance. The first two have been completed for you.

