- 1 (a) Joe makes and sells pies. He is a finalist in a 'best pie' competition but loses when the judge, Michael, says he does not like Joe's pies. Joe is angry and invites Michael to his shop to taste his pies again. Joe adds a small amount of rat poison to the next pies he makes. Many people buy and eat the pies and several, including Winnie, are ill afterwards. Winnie calls the local food authority to complain. An authorised officer comes to Joe's shop at 16:00 and seizes all the pies.

- (b) Maggie makes cheese from soya milk supplied by Charles. She sells the cheese in packs which are labelled 'soya cheese' on her market stall. One day Maggie is making cheese with milk Charles has supplied but it is a slightly different colour than usual. Maggie telephones Charles and he says he has supplied soya milk. Maggie sells the cheese with her usual label. In fact Charles sent goat's milk to Maggie, thinking it would make no difference.

- (c) Stephen makes and sells meat curry which he usually cooks for three hours. One day he is very busy and to save time he cooks his meat curry for just 30 minutes. Stephen tells his friend, Paula, what he has done. She is worried that the shorter cooking time could result in food poisoning and telephones the local food authority at 09:00 the next day. An authorised officer goes straight to Stephen's shop, issuing an order that he cannot sell the meat curry and must store it in a separate refrigerator.

- (d) Describe the process in Parliament by which a Bill becomes an Act. Assess the advantages and disadvantages of this process. [20]

Source material for Question 1

Food Safety Act 1990 (amended)

Section 1 Meaning of “food”.

- (1) In this Act “food” means any substance or product, whether processed, partially processed or unprocessed, intended to be, or reasonably expected to be ingested by humans.

Section 3 Presumptions that food intended for human consumption.

- (1) The following provisions shall apply for the purposes of this Act.
 (2) Any food commonly used for human consumption shall, if sold or offered, exposed or kept for sale, be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to have been sold or, as the case may be, to have been or to be intended for sale for human consumption.

Section 7 Rendering food injurious to health.

- (1) Any person who renders any food injurious to health by means of any of the following operations, namely—
 (a) adding any article or substance to the food;
 (b) using any article or substance as an ingredient in the preparation of the food;
 (c) abstracting any constituent from the food; and
 (d) subjecting the food to any other process or treatment, with intent that it shall be sold for human consumption, shall be guilty of an offence.

Section 9 Inspection and seizure of suspected food.

- (1) An authorised officer of a food authority may at all reasonable times inspect any food intended for human consumption which—
 (a) has been sold or is offered or exposed for sale;
 (2) The following provisions shall also apply where, otherwise than on such an inspection, it appears to an authorised officer of a food authority that any food is likely to cause food poisoning or any disease communicable to human beings.
 (3) The authorised officer may either—
 (a) give notice to the person in charge of the food that, until the notice is withdrawn, the food or any specified portion of it—
 (i) is not to be used for human consumption; and
 (ii) either is not to be removed or is not to be removed except to some place specified in the notice; or
 (b) seize the food and remove it in order to have it dealt with by a justice of the peace; and any person who knowingly contravenes the requirements of a notice under paragraph (a) above shall be guilty of an offence.

Section 14 Selling food not of the nature or substance or quality demanded.

- (1) Any person who sells to the purchaser’s prejudice any food which is not of the nature or substance or quality demanded by the purchaser shall be guilty of an offence.

Section 15 Falsely describing or presenting food.

- (1) Any person who gives with any food sold by him, or displays with any food offered or exposed by him for sale or in his possession for the purpose of sale, a label, whether or not attached to or printed on the wrapper or container, which—
 (a) falsely describes the food; or
 (b) is likely to mislead as to the nature or substance or quality of the food, shall be guilty of an offence.

Section 20 Offences due to fault of another person.

Where the commission by any person of an offence under any of the preceding provisions of this Part is due to an act or default of some other person, that other person shall be guilty of the offence; and a person may be charged with and convicted of the offence by virtue of this section whether or not proceedings are taken against the first-mentioned person.

- 2 (a) Helen was the Minister for Justice. She was recommended to the Prime Minister for appointment as Lord Chancellor. Following her appointment, Helen sits in a Supreme Court case which has the potential to reduce the amount of tax people pay. The Prime Minister has a meeting with Helen and says it is vital people pay as much tax as possible. Helen tells the judges sitting with her what the Prime Minister has said. The court unanimously decides that people should pay more tax rather than less.
